JV Sailing Coach

About Francis Parker School:

Francis Parker School is a coeducational independent day school in San Diego, California with 1300 students in grades JK-12. Founded in 1912, the school's mission is "to create and inspire a diverse community of independent thinkers whose academic excellence, global perspective and strength of character prepare them to make a meaningful difference in the world".

Overlooking Mission Valley, two separate campuses serve students in Lower School – junior kindergarten through 5th grade; Middle School – 6th grade through 8th grade and Upper School – 9th grade through 12th grade. As a college preparatory school Parker offers a comprehensive program that includes twenty-five advanced placement courses as well as a rich palette of electives – all designed to meet the individual needs of our students.

Job Description:

Francis Parker School's sailing team seeks a qualified and experienced sailing coach to work with our junior varsity sailors. Parker currently has one of the top high school teams in the region and is seeking to build a strong base of new skippers and crews in order to help strengthen the team and further promote the sport of high school sailing.

The Sailing Coach works with fellow sailing coaches, the school coordinator, and under the direct supervision of the Athletic Director and the general supervision of the Head of the Upper School. The coach is expected to provide the necessary leadership to plan, organize, and be responsible for a comprehensive interscholastic sailing program, and to carry out the objectives of the total school athletic program.

The Coach is expected to be a positive role model and is expected to maintain effective communication with athletes, school administration, staff, students, parents and the community.

Essential Duties/Responsibilities:

- Coordinate practice strategies and goals with our varsity coaches in order to meet needs of team
- Plan and implement lessons/practices which introduce new sailors to the sport of high school sailing while promoting safety, sportsmanship, and enthusiasm for the sport
- Monitor sailors during practice sessions, providing guidance, instruction, and safety support as needed
- Maintain good public relations and cooperative relationships with media, parents, officials, students, staff and school administration.
- Serve as a positive role model for students, coaching staff, and the Parker community.
