2022-2023 6-12 Tchang Teaching Fellowship

Exciting Opportunity at Francis Parker School in San Diego, California

Francis Parker School is seeking an enthusiastic, dedicated, and passionate educator who shares its core values: Students First, Academic Excellence, Global Perspective, Strength of Character, Inclusive Community, and No Limit to Better. Collegial and collaborative, Parker faculty create a learning environment that is dynamic and engaging. Parker faculty are content and pedagogical experts who invest in professional growth generously supported by the School. Importantly, Parker's unwavering commitment to being a diverse, equitable, and inclusive community creates a culture of respect for all.

If Parker's values and school culture resonate with you, we encourage you to consider this opportunity.

About Francis Parker School:

Francis Parker School is a coeducational independent day school in San Diego, California with 1315 students in grades JK-12. Founded in 1912, the school's mission is "to create and inspire a diverse community of independent thinkers whose academic excellence, global perspective and strength of character prepare them to make a meaningful difference in the world." Francis Parker School has two campuses in close proximity. One in Mission Hills (Lower School JK-5), and a second in Linda Vista (Middle and Upper School 6-8 and 9-12, respectively).

Job Description:

The Tchang Teaching Fellowship provides funding to help Parker recruit outstanding graduate student(s) to serve as an instructor (Fellow) for an academic year. The Tchang Teaching Fellow brings new perspectives into the classroom while gaining significant teaching experience in an innovative and supportive environment.

The Tchang Teaching Fellow should exemplify the highest standards of subject knowledge and passion for teaching. They believe in the Parker mission, bring current skills and knowledge in their subject areas and have an exceptional ability to inspire young minds.

Essential Duties/Responsibilities:

A Tchang Teaching Fellow is responsible for the traditional duties associated with a successful classroom teaching assistantship including assisting the supervising teacher with classroom activities, facilitating individual and small group sessions with students, program and lesson preparation, and evaluation of students. Fellows will receive support and coaching from the Director of Curriculum Alignment and Instructional Practice, the supervising teacher, appropriate Department Chairs, and Division Heads.

Eligibility

All students enrolled in a master's degree program within a School of Education in the broader San Diego Area. Students must remain in good academic standing (maintain above a 3.0 cumulative grade point average) while in the Fellow Teacher program. All selected Fellows will be screened in accordance with employment policy at Francis Parker.

Selection

Selections will be based on academic credentials and interviews of candidates. Interviews will be conducted by a joint committee which will include the Director of Curriculum Alignment and Instructional Practice from Francis Parker School and the candidate's faculty advisor. Other administrators or faculty from both the college/university and the School will also participate.

Term

The selected candidate will be appointed the Tchang Teaching Fellow for the duration of the 2022-2023 school year, ending in June 2023. The School reserves the right to withdraw the Fellow title and stipend at any time.
